1. The USIG Club, established for the Russian employees of USIG, originally was located in Askania Haus in West Berlin. When the USIG offices were moved to Karlshorst, Waldow Allee 30-36, the club, together with the USIG Polyclinic, was moved inside the Karlshorst compound into the building at Drachenfelsstrasse 10. The Russian club was located on the ground floor and mezzanine of the building. It is not known which offices or units occupied the second floor.
2. The USIG Club is directed by a Russian, Frau Kirianova (fma), whose husband is also employed by USIG. She has an 11-year-old son. The administrator of the Club and Head of the German staff employed by the Club is Boris Hahn, about 48 years of age, stateless, born in Petrograd, who served as interpreter for Frau Kirianova. In addition to Hahn, the German employees included the following individuals:
  - a. Motion Picture Projectionist - Hans Heber; German national; about 55 years of age.
  - b. Librarian - Richard Jensen; about 73 years of age; German national. Jensen's work was supervised by a Russian female librarian.
  - c. Artist and Sign Painter - Heinz Lollank; about 29 years of age; discharged in the general personnel reduction on 14 November 1953. 1/
